Will You Do Your Cooking on a Gas Range This Summer?

To all people who will put in a Gas Cooking Range during the month of May, 1905, the Gas Company will furnish them with gas. DO NOT FEEL APPREHENSIVE FOR THE MONTH AFTER THE RANGE IS INSTALLED. This will give the people an opportunity to become accustomed to the use of the Range at the expense of the Company, while the Company will be able to keep their men employed during this month to the advantage of all, as after June 1st the Company will be especially busy in extending their street mains and making other permanent improvements. Liberal terms will be made to all purchasers of Ranges when necessary. Call at the office, No. 213 North Main Street, opposite Depot Square, where you will always find a full supply of Ranges and Gas Fixtures, or drop a postal to the Company and a representative will call on you.

A two horse team owned by W. J. Elliott, of Lincoln, hauled into the village of Bristol Saturday a load of green hard slab wood measuring four cords.

From seventy-four sheep W. B. Guild, of Evansville, has raised eighty-nine lambs, all smart and ready to turn out and has lost only one lamb.

The fire drills in the public schools of Burlington are being kept up, several drills being held each week. The pupils show excellent training in this regard.

The International Brotherhood of Papermakers at a meeting held at Holyoke, Mass., Saturday, elected John J. O'Connor, of Bellows Falls, as treasurer.

A baby born to Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews of Bristol last Friday weighed only one pound. The little one is well formed and appears healthy and all right.

Ex-Gov. E. J. Ormsbee, of Brandon, was recently made a director of the Vermont soldiers' home at Bennington, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ozro Meacham.

The Rev. T. E. Tupper has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church at North Craftsbury. It is understood that he will go to a position in Kentucky in June.

J. Harry Estey of Brattleboro, is on a yacht cruise off the New England coast with Captain Carter, a friend of the Esteys. Col. J. Gray Estey will leave in a few days for Europe upon a business trip which will keep him abroad a month or more.

The Co-operative Creamery company of Jericho and the Vermont Buckboard company of Fairhaven have filed articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of State. The capital of the first named company is $2,500 and of the latter $10,000.

During the month of April the Co-operative creamery of Randolph made 34,200 pounds of butter and paid for 29,650 pounds of butter fat. The cash received for butter amounted $9,692 and patrons were paid $9,043. The cost of making the butter was $.019 per pound.

Little Selah Pomeroy of Island Pond who underwent two operations at his home for blood poisoning resulting from a wound in one hand caused by the accidental discharge of a revolver, was finally taken to a hospital in Sherbrooke, Que., to undergo a third operation. His condition now is very satisfactory, and it is thought that the hand can be saved.

Jeremiah M. Deady left Winooski Monday for Portland, Oregon, where he is to be employed at the Lewis & Clark exposition during the summer months. Mr. Deady will be in charge of one of the dairy exhibits, he having held the same position at the St. Louis exposition last summer. He was accompanied as far as Chicago by Ford Packard also of this village.

Cross Bros., of Northfield, have just completed a monument to be erected in a private lot in the White Plains cemetery, New York, which has taken about four months to complete. The monument is thirty-eight feet high with bottom base ten feet square with one foot ten inches in rise. On the top is a statue of a soldier ten feet high. The cost of the monument is about $8,000.

Humane Agent John Fuller of Burlington has taken six horses in charge within a week, two of which have been killed. It is likely that some of the others will be killed, as nearly all are in a bad condition. Last Saturday he ordered Frank Miller of St. George and a man named Rieckford of Monkton to take their horses off the road until they recovered and he still has these cases under his care.

A scheme is under way in Weston to dam the reservoir brook about one-half mile from the village park and pipe the water to give power to run the electric lights, for fire purposes, and power to the mills on the stream. One hundred and fifty feet head could be had and 75 horse power with the natural stream every twenty-four hours of the day and much more with storing capacity and high water. Moneyed men are back of it, and it probably will be pushed through.

Frank McGuire, structural engineer for the Chicago Bridge and Iron company will erect a regulator at the Chittenden Power company's new power house, Mendon. This regulator will be an immense one, and it will take until midsummer to complete it. There will be a 70,000 gallon tank, situated on the same level as the reservoir and so arranged that it will overflow into a pipe five feet in diameter. From the flume feeding the turbines another big pipe will extend to the tank. This regulates the pressure on the water wheels.

As Bert Larose was driving through Essex Junction Sunday evening his horse fell dead. Larose, who was helplessly intoxicated, was taken by Sheriff Dillon, assisted by Officer Moses Garrow, to jail. Monday morning he was taken before Justice F. W. Tuttle and pleaded guilty to being drunk and was fined $15 and costs, which was paid. He disclosed on vinegar bought of R. L. Kingsland, which he claims he diluted with one-half water and sweetened with sugar, certainly an original way of getting a jag. Shortly after the disclosure was made public, Mc Kingsland was the object of a deal of good natured chaffing on the subject of furnishing intoxicating beverage to his customers. It is reported that the horse that Larose drove had been subjected during the day to cruel usage.

Harold Grout, the young son of E. J. Grout, of Waterbury, who was drowned Sunday afternoon, was attempting to reach some cherry blossoms, at the time of the accident. He leaped against a small tree which swayed causing him to fall over a ten-foot ledge into about twelve feet of water. His younger brothers were with him at the time but were unable to aid him owing to the height of the ledge. It was some min-

Later William Devine, with the aid of a ladder and a rake, succeeded in recovering the body. Life was extinct. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of his grandfather F. W. Grout. The third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades of the Waterbury graded school held no afternoon session so that the students could attend the services in a body.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept here awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and la grippe. At the Red Cross Pharmacy. Prices, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
